

MATHEMATICS FOR THE ENVIRONMENT

Martin Walter

Presented by
MATH CLUB

Wednesday, April 5
MATH 350 at 5pm

Abstract:

Part I: How old is the oldest mathematics? Was there mathematics before numbers? Did the ancient Greeks do a form of Fourier analysis?

Part II: There is some simple mathematics that goes a long way toward proving that there is no doubt that carbon emissions warm the planet. What is this math, and why doesn't everybody know it?