

MATH CLUB presents

COMPASS/RULER vs ORIGAMI

DR. KEVIN MANLEY

Abstract: The Greeks used straight-edge and compass for a lot of architecture (and general math fun). We will do some of these useful constructions and then do something with origami that the Greeks knew to be impossible: construct the cube root of 2! We might also fold some jumping frogs!!

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2017

MATH 350

5 PM - 6 PM

COME ENJOY PIZZA AND DRINKS!