

University of Colorado
Department of Mathematics
Problem of the Month
April 2012

Is it possible to reorder the sequence $1, 2, 3, \dots$ of positive integers as a_1, a_2, a_3, \dots such that k divides $a_1 + a_2 + \dots + a_k$ for each k ?