

Practice Exercise.

Let's practice discovering and writing a proof. This is based on Exercise 8.5 of Hartshorne's book.

Given distinct points O and A , the circle with center O and radius OA is defined to be set Γ of all points B such that $OA \cong OB$. Show that any circle contains infinitely many points.